++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and bright on Tuesday.

Today:
A mostly dry day across the region with some bright or sunny spells. However, the odd light shower can't be ruled out near the Lincolnshire coast. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
Increasingly cloudy through the evening and overnight with the odd spot of rain possible. Somewhat milder for most and staying frost free. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Early cloud clearing to give some brighter conditions into Wednesday afternoon but turning increasingly cloudy once again through the evening with outbreaks of rain at times. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday colder with blustery showers for coastal areas. Into Friday conditions turning very unsettled with rain and strong winds, and these conditions will continue into Saturday after a cold night.
